

Open competition

I launch the Open Competition to recruit the candidates for a post with following requirements:

Vacancy:	Expert Project Officer – contract for a fixed term within the project duration – 3 years, full-time or half-time job
Section, department:	Section for Nature Protection, Department of Monitoring
Place of work:	Kašperské Hory
Required qualification:	HEI of the Natural or Forestry Sciences with the specialization on a zoological research
Job description:	The Šumava NP together with Bavarian Forest NP, Bavarian State Institute of Forestry (LWF), Bavarian State Forests, FB Neureichenau, Czech State Forests, LZ Boubín prepared together a common research project with the title „Nové cesty k přeshraničnímu managementu jelení zvěře v době klimatické změny“ – „New ways of cross border deer management during the climate change“. The project partners succeed with the project proposal and got funding from the European Fund of Regional Development, the program of cross border cooperation CZ/Bavaria „EUS 2014-2020“. The Šumava NP Administration is therefore seeking for an appropriate candidate, who would ensure primarily within above mentioned project own monitoring and coordination of the game monitoring (telemetry, photo traps, genetic analysis, monitoring of game damages), analysis and data processing together with Bavarian Forest NP. The worker will ensure the communication between all partners, parties, mainly with the Bavarian Forest NP and external experts. The worker will participate on the expert, administrative and logistic coordination of the project including the methodology setting, administration of data during the project time, presentation of the obtained results. Other expected activities are gathering of the supporting documents for tenders, project documentation management, writing of reports based on the project requirements, presentation of the obtained results.
Other requirements on the minimal knowledge's and skills:	Excellent English – the personal interview will be in English Knowledge's of Czech and German language will be an asset. Driving license for category B (passenger cars) Excellent PC skills (MS Excel, Word, PowerPoint, ArcGIS) Experiences from the statistical data processing, skills from programs R, Statistika, Canoco are welcome Research experiences in telemetry or zoology Team work and reliability Publication experiences in zoology Experiences and orientation in project management will be an asset.
Salary rate:	11.
Start of the work:	1.10.2017
Deadline for the submission of applicants:	3. 9. 2017
Personal interview:	11.9.2017

Any of the candidates who meet the above mentioned requirements can apply for the post. Other information about the vacancy will be provided by Mr. Ing. Martin Stary: martin.stary@npsumava.cz, Phone Nr.: +420 731 530 474, or PD Dr. Marco Heurich (Bavarian Forest NP): marco.heurich@npv-bw.bayern.de, Phone Nr.: +491 621 301 448

The candidates are asked to submit their applications in English (CV with the list of publications and letter of motivation) by Mrs. Blanka Mullerová (blanka.mullerova@npsumava.cz) – The office of the Director.

In Vimperk, the 11th of August 2017

.....
Mgr. Pavel Hubený
Director of the Šumava NP

The Šumava NP Administration reserves itself the right to cancel the open competition or change the requirements or not select any of the applied candidates.